DESCRIPTION

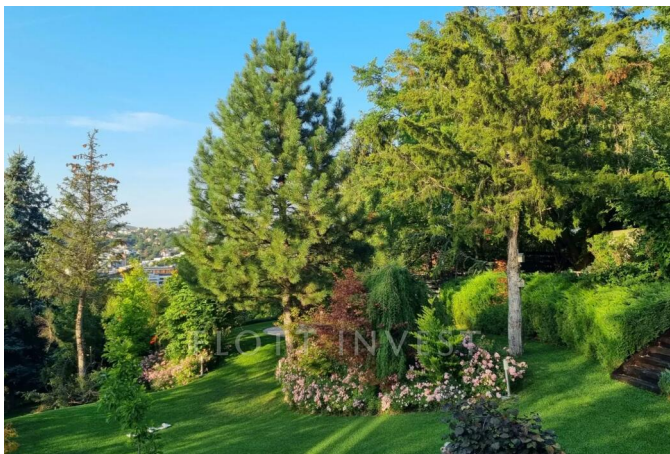

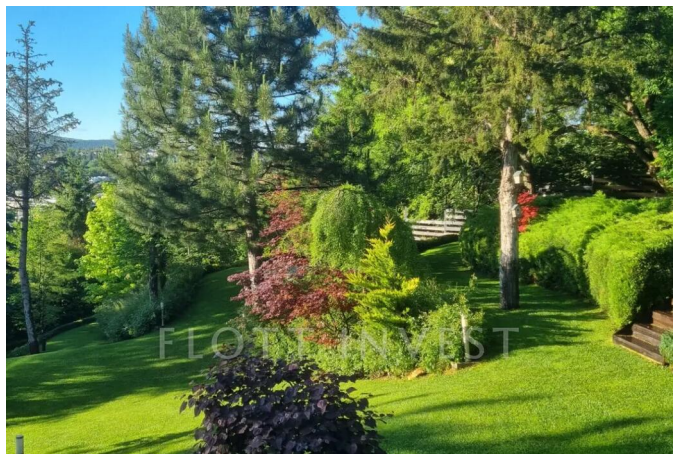

In Testvérhegy, in a beautiful green environment, with eternal panoramic views, on a large, beautiful intimate plot, is located this modern built house with modern technical achievements.

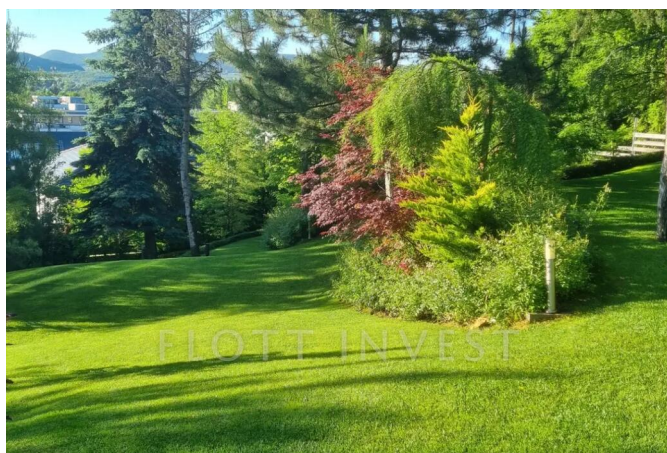

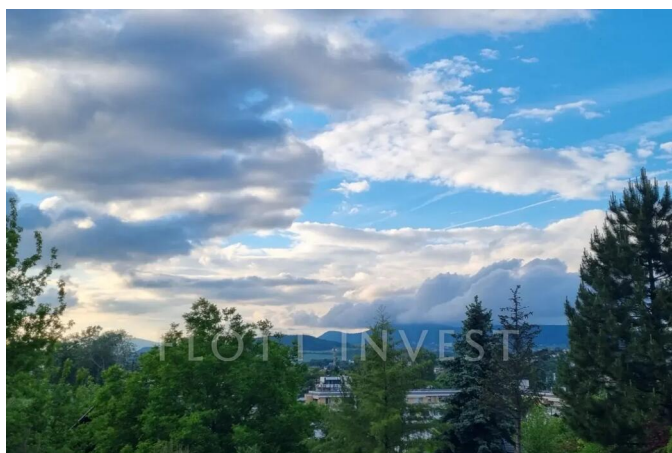

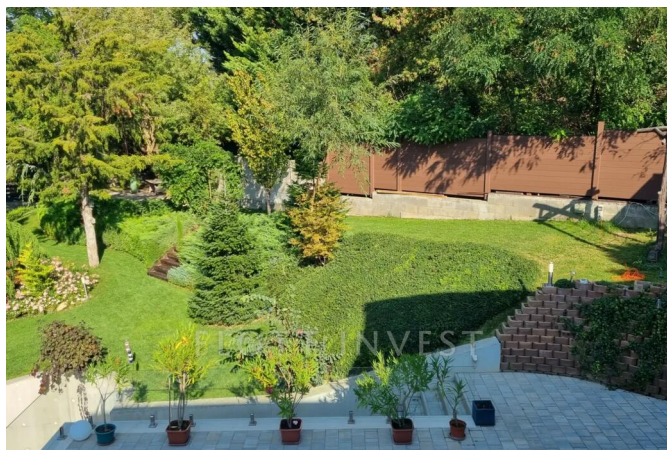

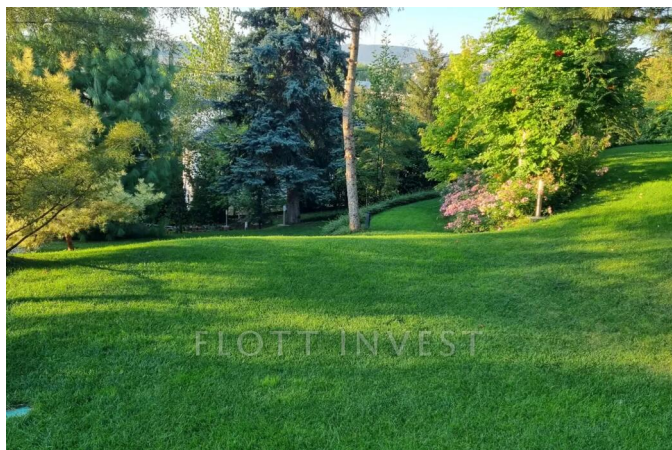

The property has a total of 335 m2 and consists of 4 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, a separate study and a walk-in closet. Not only the quality of materials used but also the high technical content contribute to the almost self-sustainable energy use of this A+++ property. These technologies include a heat pump, a solar panel system, a heat recovery ventilation system, a rainwater harvesting tank, state-of-the-art windows and doors, and the best insulation materials on the façade walls, the subsoil and the ceilings.

The plot measures 1918 m2 and is beautifully landscaped, with a barbecue area and a small wooden shed.

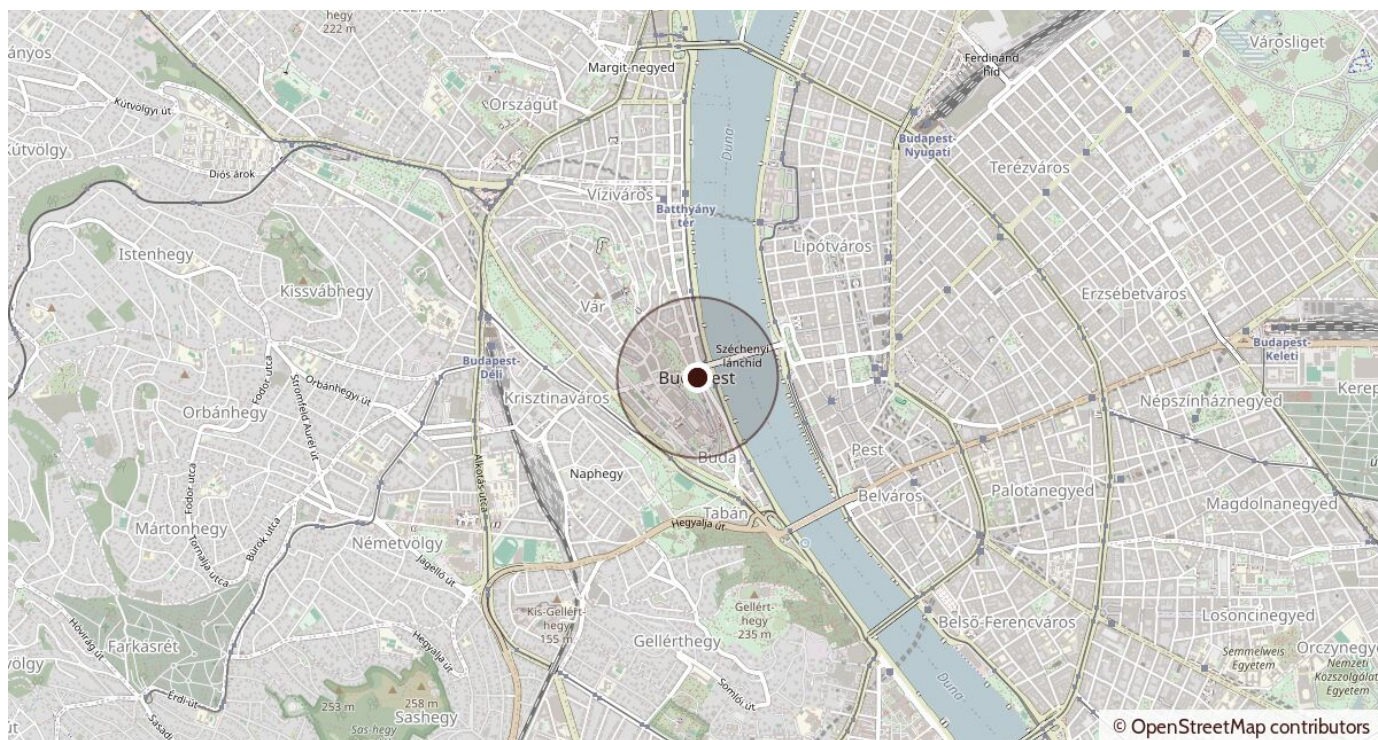

There is a two-car garage on the lower level of the property and a paved area in front of the garage for 6-7 cars.
