DESCRIPTION

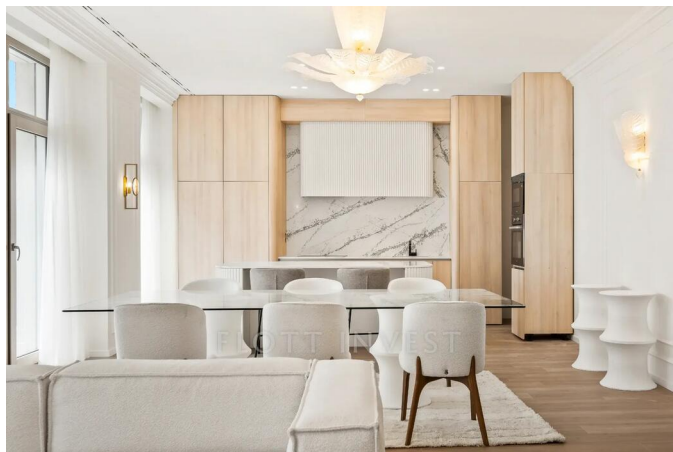

Occupying the entire first floor of M15 Residence, Residence One is positioned in one of Budapest's most sought-after historic districts, just moments from the Danube and Váci Street.

The three-bedroom residence offers approximately 199 sqm of internal living space. Its southern orientation and views towards the Danube provide abundant natural light throughout the day, while the full-floor layout ensures an exceptional degree of privacy.

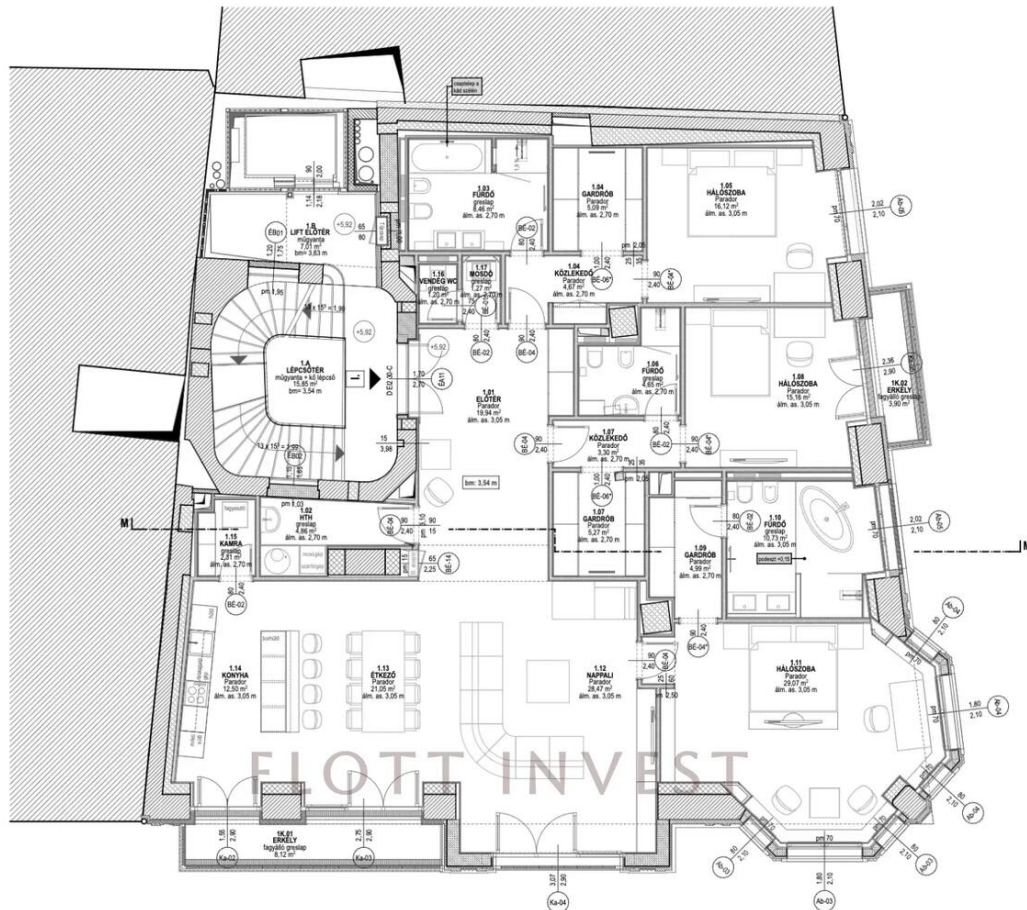

Originally constructed in the early 20th century, the building underwent a comprehensive structural and technical reconstruction in 2018. Residence One is offered fully completed, featuring carefully considered interior architecture and contemporary technical specifications.

The residence includes a private storage room and one underground parking space.
